Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Acknowledgments

1. Acknowledgment is made of the amendment filed 6/21/05.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yi (US 5,660,401 A).

With respect to claims 1, 7, 8, and 10, Yi discloses a personal transportation device comprising a transportation attachment 41, a foot platform 15, 25 above said attachment, and at least one fastener 72,75 connecting said platform to the attachment, said platform comprises a pair of L-shaped footboards 25 made of a substantially flat material bent 90-degrees, as shown in figures 11 and 12. With respect to the limitation of a user using a pair of the devices to propel, the devices of Yu are capable of being used as a pair to propel a user.

With respect to claims 2-5 and 11-13, Yi discloses the transportation attachment as being a plurality of in-line wheels 41 with axle 72 and bearing 81,79 or skate blade 60, as shown in figures 12-18.

With respect to claim 9, Yi discloses means 130 for allowing said platform to rotate relative to said attachment, as shown in figures 20-25.

With respect to claims 6 and 14, Yi discloses the skate as able to have a ski in column 6, line 35.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 6/21/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. With respect to the applicant's arguments concerning claims 1 and 10, the direction a user faces when riding the device has been given little patentable weight, further a user can easily stand sideways when riding the device of Yi, which is conventional for most skateboards. Simply using a second device, one for each foot, has also been given little patentable weight because a user could easily add a second device of Yi so that each foot has its own skate device. For these reasons the rejection stands.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
